Notice mailed to debtor's address in Item A2, or to debtor's most recent changed address on file with bank, at least five (5) days prior to the related action (or, if the Uniform Commercial Code specifies a longer period, such longer period prior to the related action), shall be deemed reasonable.

When an event of default occurs, the entire obligation becomes immediately due and payable at bank's option without notice to debtor, and bank may proceed to enforce payment of same and exercise any and all of the rights and remedies available to a secured party under the Uniform Commercial Code as well as all other rights and remedies. When debtor is in default, debtor, upon demand by bank, shall assemble the collateral and make it available to bank at a place reasonably convenient to both parties. Debtor is entitled to any surplus and shall be liable to bank for any deficiency, arising from accounts, contract rights, or chattel paper included in the collateral through sale thereof to bank.

I. FIRST AND PRIOR LIEN

This security interest grants to bank a first and prior lien to secure the payment of the notes listed herein, and extensions and renewals thereof. If bank disposes of the collateral following default, the proceeds of such disposition available to satisfy the indebtedness shall be applied first to the notes herein, and renewals and extensions thereof, in the order of execution, and thereafter to all remaining indebtedness secured hereby, in the order in which such remaining indebtedness was executed or contracted.
